

PROMOTION POLICY AS PER CBSE GUIDELINES

In CBSE school, promotion to the next grade generally requires students to achieve a minimum of 33% in each subject. Students are also typically expected to maintain a certain attendance rate, often 75% or higher, to qualify for promotion. Specific details can vary by school and grade level.

Here is more detailed breakdown:

PASS MARKS:

Students must secure a minimum of 33% in each subject's annual or term-end examination.

ATTENDANCE:

A minimum attendance rate, often 75% or more, is typically required for promotion.

INTERNAL ASSESSMENTS:

In some cases, internal assessments (like periodic tests and project work) are also considered part of the promotion criteria.

IMPROVEMENT EXAMS:

Schools may offer improvement exams for students who fail to meet the minimum passing marks in one or more subjects.

NO DOUBLE PROMOTION:

Generally, students are not promoted more than once in a given school year.
